Dear Friends and Family,

I have taken on an incredible challenge. On November 4, 2011, I'll be walking 60 miles over the course of three days, camping out at night with thousands of other women and men taking this journey with me.

It's for an event called the Susan G. Komen 3-Day for the Cure. Net proceeds from the 3-Day for the Cure fund innovative global breast cancer research and local community programs supporting education, screening and treatment. Komen for the Cure® works hard to build a future without breast cancer, and I plan on raising $3500 to help bring us closer to that goal. Each walker is required to raise $2300 to be able to participate in the walk, but this cause is so special to my heart that I have set my personal goal at $3500.

Please consider making a donation of $10, $20, $50, $100 or even more. You can spread your donation out over four months if you would like to, using the payment plan option, if you donate online at The3Day.org. Please also ask your employer if they will double your donation with a matching gift.

As most of you know, breast cancer has hit my world really hard in the last few years. First my aunt, then my mom, then I was diagnosed 7 months after Mom and then my aunt was diagnosed for the second time. Most everyone that you know has been touched in some form or fashion by breast cancer. It's crazy how you can wake up one day and it slaps you in the face. My family has been so blessed in that we are all 3 survivors and living healthy lives. This would not have been possible if there had not have been so much research done over the past several years. This is made possible by foundations such as Susan G Komen and these foundations are made successful by people like you and me who donate their hard earned money to help save someone's life down the road. I will be walking in November to help raise money for research to put an end to breast cancer forever. Hopefully, before too much longer, there will be a cure for breast cancer and people like my sister, sister in laws, nieces, my daughter in law, my precious little granddaughter, and all my girlfriends will never have to experience what so many other women have had to go through once they are diagnosed with breast cancer. This is my way of trying to help protect them and all other women around the world.

If you would like to join our team, "Bling On A Cure", you can also do that at the3day.org. We would love to have you on our team.

Somewhere in the world, a woman dies from breast cancer every 69 seconds. That's why I'm walking in the 3-Day for the Cure. Because everyone deserves a lifetime.

Just follow the link below to visit my personal fundraising webpage and make a donation. If you don't want to donate online, please download and print a donation form from my webpage and mail it to the address on the form. Or you can call 800-996-3DAY to donate over the phone. I would like to reach my fundraising goal by [date], so don't delay!

Thank you for taking the time to read this email and thank you for your support.

Sincerely,
Deann Dickens

P.S. Don't wait - donate today!
